2.1. Cookies

- We and our approved third parties may use cookies and other similar technologies (collectively, "cookies") when you visit any of the Careers Sites. These cookies allow us to store and honor your preferences and settings; combat fraud; deliver and measure the effectiveness of advertising campaigns; and analyze how the Careers Sites are performing.
- You have a variety of tools to control the data collected by cookies. For example, you can use controls in your internet browser to limit how the websites you visit are able to use cookies and to withdraw your consent by clearing or blocking cookies.

2.2. Sensitive Personal Information

- (a) Where applicable, permitted and/or required by applicable laws and regulations, or when you explicitly consent, we may collect and process Sensitive Personal Information about you should you choose to provide it. Examples of Sensitive Personal Information that we may process include:
 - a. National Identity Information such as:
 - i. Biometric information (where used for the purpose of uniquely identifying you).
 - b. Voluntary Demographic Information such as:
 - i. Racial or ethnic origin;
 - ii. Gender identity; and
 - iii. Health information (information about physical or mental health, or disability status).

2.3. Criminal background checks

- (a) Where applicable, permitted and/or required by applicable laws and regulations, we may hold information about criminal convictions. We will only collect information about criminal convictions during the recruitment process if it is appropriate given the nature of the role and where we are legally able to do so. We will use information about criminal convictions and offences to assess suitability for a particular role and to comply with our obligations as required by applicable laws and regulations.

2.4. Failure to provide Personal Information

- (a) If you do not provide information necessary to progress your application, do not complete the background check as described in Section 2 ("What categories of Personal Information do we collect?"), or if the background check determines that you are not suitable for the role you have applied for, we may be unable to progress your application. For example: (a) if we are unable to verify your right to work or your experience, education, and qualifications, or: (b) the background check indicates that you have a criminal record, we may not be able to proceed with your application.

3. How do we collect Personal Information?

3.1. We collect Personal Information about you from the following sources:

- a. Directly from you (information that you provide to us during the recruitment process);
- b. Indirectly from you (such as through your use of one or more of the Careers Sites);
- c. Third party recruiters, staffing companies or executive search agencies;
- d. Background check providers, former employers and/or education institutions;
- e. Publicly available sources such as professional networking websites (e.g., LinkedIn/GitHub);
- f. Your named referees;
- g. Travel agencies engaged to arrange Applicant travel; and

- h. Corporate transactions (e.g. as part of an acquisition, merger, divestment).

4. How do we use and otherwise process Personal Information?

4.1. We process your Personal Information for the following purposes:

- a. To communicate with you throughout the recruitment process;
- b. To assess your qualifications, skills, and suitability for the considered position;
- c. To verify your provided information and carry out background checks;
- d. To make adjustments to the recruitment process;
- e. To book travel for on-site interviews, if applicable;
- f. To consider you for, and inform you about future job opportunities;
- g. To prepare your employment or services agreement if you are offered a position at Coursera;
- h. To assist with obtaining an immigration visa or work permit (if applicable);
- i. To comply with applicable laws and regulations;
- j. To monitor and assess our equal opportunity, diversity, inclusion and accessibility programs on an aggregated basis;
- k. To store and honor your preferences and settings; combat fraud; deliver and measure the effectiveness of advertising campaigns; and analyze how the Careers Sites are performing;
- l. To conduct data analytics in order to improve our recruitment process; and
- m. To undertake and administer a corporate transaction. This includes the sale, assignment, or other transfer of all or part of our business, or the acquisition and integration of all or part of another business (for example integrating or enabling access to information about Applicants between us and the acquired business).

4.2. AI and Automated decision-making

- a. We may use artificial intelligence (AI) tools to assist in evaluating applications. These tools help identify relevant skills or experience from your application and prevent fraud. However, any insights or recommendations generated by these tools are used to support, and not replace, the judgment of our talent acquisition teams and hiring managers.
- b. Automated decision-making means a decision based solely on automated processing (including profiling) of Personal Information, without any human involvement, that produces legal effects concerning you, or similarly significantly affects you. Coursera does not carry out automated decision-making of this kind in relation to Applicants. If this ever changes, we will update this Notice and provide appropriate notice in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

4.3. Data Analytics

- a. Coursera uses Personal Information to perform data analytics. These analytics leverage Personal Information contained in and across Coursera's recruitment systems (such as Greenhouse) and enable the Talent Acquisition Team to obtain aggregated data-driven insights. These insights are used to better understand, maintain, evaluate and improve our recruitment process.

5. What legal bases do we rely upon to process Personal Information?

5.1. The legal basis for processing Personal Information may vary by country, as well as by the category of Personal Information and the purpose of collection and processing. Where required by applicable laws and regulations, we specify the specific legal basis for processing Personal Information before collecting and processing such Personal Information in the table below.

5.2. Applicants residing in the U.K., the EEA or Switzerland

- a. We rely on different legal bases for collecting and processing your Personal Information (as set out in the table below). Where we rely on our legitimate interest, you can object to this processing in certain circumstances. In such cases, we will cease processing your Personal Information unless we have compelling legitimate grounds to continue processing or where it is required for legal reasons. For more information on how to object or exercise any other privacy right, please refer to Section 10 (“What privacy rights do Applicants have”).

6. Who do we share Personal Information with?

- 6.1. We share Personal Information with third parties, including third-party service providers and other entities in our group.
- 6.2. We require third parties to respect the security of Personal Information and to treat it in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.
- 6.3. Disclosure within the Coursera group
 - a. Your Personal Information may be shared with any company that is a member of the Coursera group (including Coursera, Inc. or Udemy, Inc. each based in the U.S.) in order to carry out the recruitment activities specified in this Notice.
 - b. We may also share your Personal Information with our group companies where they provide services to us, such as IT systems, data hosting, talent acquisition services, and legal support.

6.4. Disclosure to other third parties

- a. We will share your Personal Information with third parties where required by applicable laws and regulations, where it is necessary to administer the recruitment process or where we have another legitimate interest in doing so under applicable laws and regulations.
- b. We will share your Personal Information with the following categories of third parties:
 - i. other parties, such as legal and regulatory authorities (including government departments and tax authorities), accountants, auditors, lawyers and other outside professional advisors;
 - ii. companies that provide products and services to us, such as:
 - A. providers of recruiting tools such as Greenhouse;
 - B. travel agencies;
 - C. background check providers;
 - D. document signing platforms;
 - E. police and immigration authorities; and
 - F. IT suppliers, including providers of cloud storage, back-up and disaster recovery, cyber security, email and telecommunications.
- c. We will also disclose your Personal Information to third parties in some other circumstances:
 - i. if we sell or buy any business or assets, we may disclose your Personal Information to the prospective seller or buyer (or Personal Information held by Coursera may be one of the transferred assets);
 - ii. if we are under a duty to disclose or share your Personal Information in order to comply with any legal obligation, any lawful request from regulatory or law enforcement officials and as may be required to meet national security or law enforcement requirements or prevent illegal activity;
 - iii. to respond to any claims, to protect our rights or rights of a third party, to protect the safety of any person or to prevent any illegal activity; and
 - iv. to protect the rights, property or safety of Coursera, our employees or other persons.

6.5. Restrictions on the use of Personal Information by those we share it with

- a. Some of these third parties may process your Personal Information in countries which are outside of the country where you reside. For more information on cross-border transfers, please refer to Section 7 ("Cross-border transfers of Personal Information").

- b. Any third parties with whom we share your Personal Information are limited (by law and/or by contract) in their ability to use your Personal Information and the purposes for which they use it. Any third parties with whom we share your Personal Information are subject to privacy and security obligations consistent with this Notice and applicable laws and regulations. In respect of third party service providers who are processing your Personal Information on our behalf, we only permit them to process your Personal Information for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

7. Cross-border transfers of Personal Information

- 7.1. As set out in Section 6 (“Who do we share Personal Information with”), your Personal Information may be transferred and processed outside the country in which you reside by other members of our group (in the U.S. for example) or third parties for the purposes mentioned in Section 4 (“How do we use and otherwise process Personal Information”). This processing may take place in countries that may not provide the same level of protection for your Personal Information as the country in which you reside.
- 7.2. If we transfer any Personal Information about you to another member(s) of our group (including Coursera, Inc.) or third-party data processors, we will take appropriate measures to enable members of our group and our service providers to protect your Personal Information adequately in accordance with this Notice and applicable laws and regulations. For example, these measures include complying with specific cross border data transfer requirements under applicable laws and regulations such as participating in approved data transfer frameworks and/or entering into Standard Contractual Clauses.
- 7.3. For Applicants residing in the U.K., the EEA or Switzerland (or another region that offers similar protections), we participate in and commit to adhering to the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework, the U.K. extension to the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework, and the Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework when transferring data from the EEA, U.K. or Switzerland to the U.S. Please refer to our Data Privacy Framework Notice in Section 7.4 (“EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework”) for further information. Where we cannot transfer Personal Information on the basis of the Data Privacy Framework, we rely on another approved transfer mechanism including the Standard Contractual Clauses and the U.K. Addendum (as applicable). If you want to obtain a copy of the transfer mechanism we use, please contact us using the details in Section 14 (“Further questions or making a complaint”).
- 7.4. EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework
 - a. Coursera, Inc. complies with the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (“EU-U.S. DPF”) and the U.K. Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (“Swiss-U.S. DPF”) as set forth by the U.S. Department of Commerce. Coursera, Inc. has certified to the U.S. Department of Commerce that it adheres to the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework Principles (the “EU-U.S. DPF Principles”) with regard to the processing of Personal Information received from the European Union and the U.K. in reliance on the EU-U.S. DPF and the U.K. Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF. Coursera has certified to the U.S. Department of Commerce that it adheres to the Swiss-U.S. Data Privacy Framework Principles (“Swiss-U.S. DPF Principles”) with regard to the processing of Personal Information received from Switzerland in reliance on the Swiss-U.S. DPF. If there is any conflict between the terms in this Notice and the EU-U.S. DPF Principles and/or the Swiss-U.S. DPF Principles, the Principles shall govern. Further information is available in Coursera Inc.’s Data Privacy

Framework Notice here. To learn more about the Data Privacy Framework Program, and to view our certification, please visit <https://www.dataprivacyframework.gov/>.

- b. Under the EU-U.S. DPF and the U.K. Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. DPF, we will offer you the opportunity to opt-out of your Personal Information (or to provide explicit consent for Sensitive Personal Information) being: (i) disclosed to a third party (other than an agent performing tasks on behalf of and under the instructions of Coursera, Inc.); or (ii) used for a purpose materially different from the purpose for which it was originally collected (as set out in this Notice), or subsequently authorized by you, when the circumstances arise. If you have further questions related to the above, you can also contact us at privacy-legal@coursera.org.
- c. We will regularly review our compliance with the statements set forth in this Notice regarding our compliance with the EU-U.S. DPF and the U.K. Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. DPF, and we will provide an independent way to resolve complaints about our privacy practices. We encourage interested persons to first contact us (contact information provided below), and we will investigate and attempt to resolve any complaints and disputes regarding use and disclosure of Personal Information in accordance with the Principles. In compliance with the EU-U.S. DPF and the U.K. Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. DPF, Coursera, Inc. commits to cooperate and comply respectively with the advice of the panel established by the EU data protection authorities and the U.K. Information Commissioner's Office and the Swiss Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner with regard to unresolved complaints concerning our handling of Personal Information received in reliance on the EU-U.S. DPF and the U.K. Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. DPF in the context of the recruitment process. Note that under certain conditions, you may invoke binding arbitration. Please visit <https://www.dataprivacyframework.gov/> for more information.
- d. In the context of an onward transfer, Coursera, Inc. has responsibility for the processing of Personal Information it receives under the EU-U.S. DPF and the U.K. Extension to the EU-U.S. DPF and the Swiss-U.S. DPF and subsequent transfers to a third party acting as an agent on its behalf. Coursera, Inc. shall remain liable under the Principles if its agent processes such Personal Information in a manner inconsistent with the Principles, unless Coursera, Inc. proves that it is not responsible for the event giving rise to the damage.
- e. Coursera, Inc. is subject to the investigatory and enforcement powers of the U.S. Federal Trade Commission and other authorized statutory bodies.
- f. Further details on the steps we take to protect your Personal Information, in these cases, are available from us on request by contacting us at privacy-legal@coursera.org.

8. How long do we store Personal Information for?

- 8.1. If your application leads to you becoming a Coursera employee or contractor, relevant information we collect about you during the application process will become part of your employment or services record and retained in accordance with applicable laws and regulations and our internal policies and procedures.

- 8.2. If your application is unsuccessful, and you do not want to be considered for future job opportunities, we will retain your Personal Information for two years or as long as necessary to:
 - a. Comply with our legal obligations such as immigration and visa requirements; or
 - b. To resolve any disputes related to the application process.
- 8.3. If you have consented to being considered for future job opportunities, we will retain your Personal Information for three years. After this period, you will be asked to renew your consent.
- 8.4. In some circumstances we may anonymise your Personal Information so that it can no longer be associated with you, in which case we may use such information without further notice to you.

9. How do we protect Personal Information?

- 9.1. We will implement industry standard physical, technical, and administrative security measures such as pseudonymisation, encryption and access controls to keep your Personal Information confidential and secure.
- 9.2. Any third parties with whom we share your Personal Information are limited (by law and/or by contract) in their ability to use your Personal Information and the purposes for which they use it. Any third parties with whom we share your Personal Information are subject to privacy and security obligations consistent with this Notice and applicable laws and regulations. In respect of third party service providers who are processing your Personal Information on our behalf, we only permit them to process your Personal Information for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

10. What privacy rights do Applicants have?

- 10.1. You have certain rights in relation to your Personal Information. If you would like further information in relation to these or would like to exercise any one of them please contact privacy-legal@coursera.org. In certain circumstances and depending on applicable laws and regulations, you have the right to:
 - a. request that we provide access to your Personal Information along with further information on the processing of it and provide you with a copy of any Personal Information which we hold about you;
 - b. request that we update any of your Personal Information which we hold about you and is out of date or incorrect or incomplete;
 - c. request that we delete any Personal Information which we hold about you;
 - d. request that we restrict the way that we process your Personal Information;
 - e. request that we provide your Personal Information to a third party;
 - f. not to be subject to a decision based solely on automated processing, including profiling;

- g. object to our use of your Personal Information;
 - h. withdraw your consent where our processing of your Personal Information is based on your consent;
 - i. nominate an individual on your behalf to exercise your privacy rights;
 - j. grievance redressal; and
 - k. not be discriminated against for exercising your privacy rights.
- 10.2. We will consider all privacy rights requests and will respond within the time period stated by applicable laws and regulations. Certain Personal Information may be exempt from such requests in certain circumstances, for example where we are required to continue processing your Personal Information to comply with a legal obligation or where an exemption is permitted under applicable laws and regulations. We will explain any such exemptions or limitations to you when responding to your request.
- 10.3. We may request you provide us with information necessary to confirm your identity and comply with your right to access the information (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is an appropriate security measure designed to help prevent your Personal Information from being disclosed to individuals who are not entitled to receive it.
- 10.4. You will not have to pay a fee to access your Personal Information (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, as permitted by applicable laws and regulations we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in certain circumstances.

11. Changes to this Notice

- 11.1. We reserve the right to make changes to this Notice at any time. Any changes to this Notice will be posted on this page therefore please make sure to read this Notice prior to submitting your Personal Information. Substantial changes to this Notice will be highlighted on the Careers Sites or may be emailed to you.

12. Further questions or making a complaint

- 12.1. If you have any queries or complaints (including about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles) about our collection, use or storage of your Personal Information, or if you wish to exercise any of your rights in relation to your Personal Information, please contact privacy-legal@coursera.org. We will investigate and attempt to resolve any such complaint or dispute regarding the use or disclosure of your Personal Information.
- 12.2. For Applicants residing in the U.K., the EEA, Switzerland, or other region that offers similar data protection rights, you may also lodge a complaint with your local data protection supervisory authority or seek a remedy through the courts. In the U.K., the relevant supervisory authority is the Information Commissioner's Office which can be contacted at <https://ico.org.uk/>. A list of EEA supervisory authorities and how to contact them is available from the European Data Protection Board at https://edpb.europa.eu/about-edpb/about-edpb/members_en. In Switzerland, the supervisory authority is the Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner (FDPIC) available at <https://www.edoeb.admin.ch/de>.
